

840 000 €

A photograph of a white, single-story house with a tiled roof, a central arched doorway, and windows with black shutters. The house is surrounded by a well-maintained garden with a brick path leading to the entrance, a black lamppost, and various trees and shrubs.

Costa del Sol, Estepona

This property is located in the heart of Estepona, in the iconic Barrio del Cristo neighborhood. This pedestrian street, recently renovated, directly connects the old town with Avenida Juan Carlos I, offering a setting steeped in traditional Andalusian charm and immediate access to shops, cafes, schools, and all the city center's services. Would you like to schedule a viewing? Don't hesitate to contact us!